

GRADUATE STUDIES
COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES
DESCRIPTION AND GUIDELINES FOR
SALLY H. WERTHEIM EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP AWARD

This award recognizes an outstanding graduate student who not only demonstrates scholarship, character, and commitment to others—qualities steeped in the Jesuit mission—but who also seeks to enhance, and shows promise for improving, the educational experiences of children and youth. Candidates for the award must be enrolled in a graduate degree program in education at John Carroll.

The Sally H. Wertheim Educational Leadership Award commemorates Dr. Wertheim's service and leadership to the John Carroll Community. Currently the Consultant for Special Projects, and Dean Emeritus, Dr. Wertheim also served as academic vice president during an interim period and chaired the Department of Education and Allied Studies for nine years. She teaches in the areas of foundations of education, multicultural education, and human relations. Her leadership extends beyond JCU into the surrounding community, where she has served on several boards in Greater Cleveland and statewide. Dr. Wertheim received her Ph.D. in the history of education from Case Western Reserve University.

Requirements for the award include acceptance in an education programs: Professional Teacher, Educational Administration, School Counseling, School Psychology. Also required are a resume, an application, an official undergraduate transcript with a minimum grade point average of 3.0, three letters of recommendation that describe academic and professional accomplishments and community service, and a 500 word essay that demonstrates how the candidate plans to make a difference in the educational experiences of children and youth.

The selection process begins in the fall semester with the formation of a selection committee that includes the Graduate School dean (or designee), a Wertheim family member, the chair of the Education and Allied Studies Department, and a department faculty member appointed by the chair. The deadline for applications and supporting documentation is February 24, 2012. Finalists will be contacted for a personal interview, and the award will be announced and presented during the spring semester. The scholarship may be applied to tuition only (full- or part- time), and must be used within a 5-year period.

The scholarship amount is $5000. The scholarship fund's principal may increase in future years through gifts made by friends inclined to continue their support.

Applications are available in the Department of Education and Allied Studies, AD 301, John Carroll University, University Heights, Ohio 44118, telephone (216) 397-4331
