Welcome to John Carroll University! All first- and second-year students are members of the College of Arts and Sciences; we assist students with questions on academic policies and programs and help to foster relationships between faculty advisors and students. Your first stop in the Dean’s office is the Assistant Dean for Freshmen (all students with less than 24 credit hours) who introduces students to support and enrichment services available on campus and assists students in transition to university academic life. The Assistant Dean for Sophomores (for students with 25-54 credit hours) will help you to explore academic opportunities and make choices about and declare majors, minors, and concentrations. The Assistant Dean for Juniors and Seniors (students with 55 or more credit hours) promotes interest in internships, service opportunities, and graduate school and prepares students for graduation and career choices.

Academic Advising
www.jcu.edu/advising

Academic advising is an integral part of your education at John Carroll University. Your faculty advisor will help you to understand programs and policies and help you to develop your specific course of study.

The assignment of a faculty advisor at the University is a three-part process. First, faculty advisors provide one-on-one advising meetings with students during the new student and transfer orientation programs to prepare students for their first semester at JCU. Secondly, all new students enter through the College of Arts and Sciences and are assigned a pre-major faculty advisor by the Associate Dean for Student Services and Academic Advising with careful consideration of student needs. Lastly, students who have earned sophomore status and have declared their major(s) are assigned a major faculty advisor within the academic department(s) of their major(s).

Your assigned faculty advisor will discuss your academic plans and progress with you throughout your academic career at the University. Students are encouraged to review the Undergraduate Bulletin, check their registration information in Banner, and contact their advisors on a regular basis regarding an academic plan of study, policies, program requirements, and registration.

Looking for help? At the library’s reference desk, students will find friendly and experienced librarians who can guide them to the reputable sources needed to complete college-level assignments. If you cannot make it to the library for in-person assistance, help is available by phone, email, text, or 24/7 chat. For in-depth help with the research process, students can schedule one-on-one instructional sessions with a librarian.

In addition to reference and instructional services, the library provides access to more than 44.8 million items, dozens of electronic research databases, and thousands of scholarly journals through the statewide OhioLINK system. Through the library’s electronic reserves system, students have Web access to course syllabi, lecture notes, sample tests, and supplemental readings.

The library’s Computer Commons provides word processing programs, spreadsheet software, printing, and access to the library’s online services and resources. The Center for Digital Media Lab provides software and equipment for creating Power Point presentations and videos, scanning and editing images, and creating web pages and e-portfolios. Additionally, the library offers ideal spaces for individual and group study.

Becoming familiar with the library’s resources and services is one of the best investments you can make in your own academic success. Stop in soon and learn what Grasselli Library can do for you!

In the Dean of Students’ Office your rights and responsibilities are our main concern. We strive to keep our campus and community safe for you to live, work and enjoy your time at JCU. The office is welcoming, student friendly and is a safe place to report incidents that violate university community standards. JCU’s policies and codes of conduct can be found online in our Community Standards Manual.

“John Carroll was the perfect college choice for me. Classes are thought provoking and allow one’s mind to grow, especially for anyone who is undecided about a major. However, you must always go to class ready to pay attention. Teachers were lenient in high school...don’t expect that here. Lastly, when you want to go off campus, the JCU shuttle and RTA busses and trains make getting around a breeze!”

We are excited about the possibility of you joining the on-campus community as you begin your experience here at John Carroll. Living on campus gives you the optimal opportunity to meet other students, form strong bonds, and open yourself up to the differences in the way community members think, believe and celebrate. While you will meet many people different from yourselves, you will also meet many people who have similar interests. Planned activities on your floor and in your building will enhance your classroom experiences. Resident Assistants will be on each floor to assist you during your first year at John Carroll.

While many students live on campus for the convenience factor, research shows that students who live on campus during their college careers are more satisfied with their college experiences, more likely to be involved in campus life such as intramurals and community service, perform better than those who live off campus, and ultimately graduate.

There are three main residence halls where first year students live: Murphy Hall, Pacelli Hall and Sutowski Hall. There are also several specialty floors which may be of interest to you:

Entrepreneurs’ House (for all students)
The Entrepreneurs’ House is a community in Murphy Hall that provides a unique living environment for first year and continuing students from any academic major who are interested in innovation, creativity and entrepreneurship. Students on this floor will have the opportunity to interact with and learn from Cleveland-area entrepreneurs as well as participate in special programming designed for the student who is interested in exploring the concepts and ideas related to entrepreneurship. Student residents are provided with a lounge, sponsored by the Entrepreneurs Association, for EH students’ exclusive use. This area is equipped with computers, flat screen TV, wall-sized white board and other tools to assist you in your search for knowledge in entrepreneurship.
Honors Housing (for all students)
The Honors floor in Campion Hall is an opportunity for first-year and continuing students in the Honors Program to live in an engaging environment that is supportive of their academic and social needs. While Campion Hall is primarily continuing students, this community can accommodate approximately 26 first-year Honors Program students in addition to the current JCU honors students who live on this floor. The Honors students who choose to live on this floor can have a roommate who is not in the Honors Program. Students living on this floor will have exclusive access to a study lounge with computers and printers and specialized programming to enhance their academic experience.

Healthy Living Floors (for all students)
The Healthy Living floors are available to students who are interested in living a healthy lifestyle, focused on physical and mental well-being. Students on these floors can engage in special programming opportunities such as visits with a nutritionist or physical trainer; practice meditation and yoga; visit area organic food stores; and participate on intramural teams. These floors are also free from alcohol, tobacco and other drug use.

If you choose to live on campus, your enrollment deposit should be paid to the Office of Admission. Once your deposit is received and beginning May 2, you will be able to access MyHousing through Banner Web. Instructions on how to do this will be in your welcome packet and can be found on the Office of Residence Life website at http://www.jcu.edu/campuslife/reslife/firstyear/online_housing.htm.
There are many things to do at JCU! The Office of Student Activities collaborates with students to create a student life culture that fosters community, develops student leadership, increases student involvement, and empowers students through the creation of holistic and comprehensive experiences, which are social, educational and cultural. Some examples of great events we have sponsored in the past include the Best Week Ever Tour, the Welcome Back Luau, and Winter Formal.

One of the best ways to get adjusted to college life is to get involved! Every September the Office of Student Activities sponsors the Student Involvement Fair where you can eat good food, listen to music, and learn about our over 90 different student organizations. There truly is something for every student. Visit Room 201, right above the bookstore, to find your niche on campus. Stop by to see us anytime!

Athletic and recreational activities are viewed as an important piece of your experience at JCU. We offer opportunities for involvement in 21 varsity sports and 11 club sport teams in addition to 26 intramural activities. To meet individual interests, group instruction fitness classes are scheduled throughout the year in addition to a variety of late night and special events. For recreational opportunities, students have access to facilities that include the Corbo fitness and weight room, the Recreation Center gymnasium with indoor jogging track, three racquetball courts, and the Johnson Natatorium. Varsity athletic teams compete in the Tony DeCarlo Varsity Center, the Don Shula Stadium (including the surrounding fields), and the William H. Johnson Natatorium.

“When I came to John Carroll, I went to all the activity fairs and signed up for whatever seemed to fit my interests. I tried lots of things. I ended up sticking with organizations that I didn’t even expect: I-Dance—I never danced before I came to JCU—and Pep Band. What I loved most were the people I met. By joining these organizations, I was able to explore skills I didn’t even know I have, as well as build lasting relationships.”

The fraternities and sororities at Carroll are committed to ethical leadership, positive membership development, fun social activities, academic excellence, participation in community service, and the strong bonds of sisterhood and brotherhood. At JCU, first year students can join one of these incredible leadership and social organizations in the fall semester during formal recruitment periods. Membership into a Greek organization is not limited to first semester freshmen; one can join at any point in their college career. However, it’s best to join your first semester so you can make the most out of your experience and make new friends!

All of our fraternities and sororities are national organizations that have other chapters at neighboring colleges and universities and benefit greatly from strong alumni relations in the greater Cleveland area. Please feel free to come to any of the events we will be sponsoring throughout the year – they are open to the entire John Carroll University community.

The nine Greek organizations at John Carroll University are:

Fraternities - Beta Theta Pi, Delta Tau Delta, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Phi Epsilon

Sororities - Chi Omega, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma
Guided by John Carroll University’s mission, vision and core values, the Center for Student Diversity and Inclusion focuses on supporting historically underrepresented students to become successful and fully engaged in their educational experiences at John Carroll University. The Center nurtures a sense of belonging for students from diverse backgrounds and encourages them to participate actively in their curricular and co-curricular learning, including campus and community organizations, leadership opportunities, and intercultural experiences. In collaboration with other University departments, the Center coordinates programs and services that foster an inclusive campus environment, promote a welcoming and just university community, and encourage and value the contributions and perspectives of all students.

The goals of the Center for Student Diversity and Inclusion are:

• To develop, implement and evaluate programs and services that support historically underrepresented students in their personal development and transition throughout their John Carroll University experiences.

• To provide leadership opportunities for underrepresented students that focus on engagement in campus and community organizations.

• To provide campus-wide programs that further all students’ development of cultural competence and respect for diversity and social justice.

• To identify, examine, and recommend organizational changes that remove barriers to inclusion and promote student success.

“Enjoy your freshman year at John Carroll. Do not spend all your time studying and do not spend all your time hanging out with friends. Get involved, go out, have a good time, but remember your grades come first. I had an awesome freshman year. I maintained good grades and still had time to spend with friends. I enjoyed learning new business strategies in the Boler School of Business and applying them to my landscaping business.”
and social environment of the university. We value the University’s commitment to academic pursuits, and welcome the opportunities we have to bring a Catholic and Ignatian faith perspective to bear on issues and trends that may surface in various disciplines.

We have identified the following statements as our purpose:

• We embrace the Jesuit Catholic intellectual tradition as an indispensable partner in the search for truth and wisdom.
• We promote a faith that does justice through education, advocacy, service and reflection.
• We foster the development of whole persons who are servant leaders in their local, global, and faith communities.
• We provide an open, caring, hospitable and collaborative atmosphere that supports the mission of the University.
• We establish a sense of community through vibrant worship, retreats, and small faith communities, with Eucharist as the primary spiritual experience for Catholics.
• We advocate for a community comprised of a diversity of faith and spiritual perspectives that seeks both wisdom and a fuller spiritual life.

Being a woman or man for others...

Faith and justice are at the heart of the programs, liturgies, retreats, and service opportunities that Campus Ministry promotes. All students (Catholics and non-Catholics alike) are encouraged to explore, deepen, and celebrate their faith. They are also called to action for the purpose of learning about and working for justice.

We “major” in hospitality! Besides the wonderful retreats, worship experiences and international and domestic immersion trips, we invite you to join a small faith community, Christian Life Community (CLC), one of our service groups, or just come by for a cup of fair trade coffee! We would love to meet you! Our schedule of masses can be found at http://www.jcu.edu/campuslife/campusministry/liturgy/mass.htm
The Center for Service and Social Action is committed to providing students with engaging and exciting service opportunities. Join the We the People Service Learning Program and tutor Cleveland-area children about the U.S. Constitution; assist developmentally challenged adults in recreational activities such as bocce, basketball, and karaoke; provide patient care and support at local hospitals and hospice facilities; befriend a senior citizen, mentor a child, teach English as a second language, or participate in any number of service opportunities to get engaged in Cleveland and beyond. Through service learning courses, voluntary service, special service projects, and domestic and international service-based immersion trips, JCU students meet real community needs—especially the needs of our most vulnerable neighbors. Our staff will assist you in finding service activities that fit your interests and availability, and in transporting you to and from service locations. Come and see what remarkable experiences you can have in service to others!

Immersion Experiences

www.jcu.edu/immersion

Students travel to domestic and international locations where they are exposed to issues of poverty and injustice while experiencing unique cultures and environments. They engage in direct service activities, participate in experiential learning, and make educational site visits—while living in the very communities that they are serving. Each experience has significant components of preparation and opportunities for daily reflection to explore one’s learning and growth.

Experiences take place before classes begin in January, during Spring Break, and over the summer. International destinations include: Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Honduras, Jamaica, Nicaragua, and Rwanda; Domestic destinations include: Appalachia; Immokalee, Florida; Louisville, Kentucky; and New Orleans, Louisiana.

“The best advice I have is to try something new! JCU has so much to offer—don’t let something different keep you from getting involved! I also wish I knew how much time I would need to devote to studying; I didn’t have to study that much in high school...college is different—study up! Also, I wish I would have gotten to know the girls on my floor more when I first moved in...I didn’t hang with new people until second semester.”

Looking for a way to make the most of your college experience? John Carroll University’s Military Science Department invites you to enroll in our exciting program and be a part of our proud Army ROTC tradition. Our program focuses on attracting top-quality Scholar-Athlete-Leaders to become the future commissioned officers. of the United States Army by developing their leadership abilities and instilling responsibility, integrity, and mission-focus. The Department of the Army annually awards ROTC full-tuition scholarships on a competitive basis nationally. Four-year advance designee scholarship winners are selected from high school applicants, and alternative entry programs and scholarship packages may be available for qualified current college students. Further details and contact information are available at our website.

Army ROTC is an elective curriculum which you can take along with your required college classes. Additionally, the 100- and 200-level Military Science courses also fulfill the core requirements for the new JCU Leadership Minor program. ROTC gives you the tools, training and experiences that will help you succeed in any competitive environment. Because Army ROTC is an elective, you can participate during your freshman and sophomore years without any obligation to join the Army. You will have a normal college student experience like everyone else on campus, but should you choose to continue in the program in your Junior and Senior years, upon graduation you will commission as a Second Lieutenant into the Regular Army, Army Reserves, or Army National Guard. Competitive opportunities also exist for advanced follow-on education, to include medical school and law school.

Office of the Registrar

Administration Building, Room B102a

The Office of the Registrar is responsible for the maintenance and preservation of all University academic records. In addition to processing grades and transcripts, the Office of the Registrar provides enrollment verification for student loans and insurance purposes.

Students register for courses by using an online electronic system and have access, on a read-only basis, to his/her own academic record. Upon formal admission to the University, all students are given a User ID and PIN for these electronic services.

“The best advice I have for incoming freshmen is that it’s ok to not know what you want to major in. JCU has core classes that you take during your first semester of freshman year, which will help you determine a major. Also, your residence hall is a great place to make friends and hang out with others on weekends!”

Your Carroll OneCard serves as your student identification card and allows you to access facilities and services at John Carroll. You can access materials and services at Grasselli Library, use it for cashing checks at the cashier’s office in the Student Service Center, and also to gain access into the dining hall, the facilities in the recreation complex, and for printing in the computer labs.

Your Carroll OneCard can also be used as a debit card at the soft drink, coffee and snack machines on campus that are equipped with readers as well as in the university bookstore. Funds can be deposited into the Carroll Cash debit account from MasterCard or Visa at the website www. OneCardGivesBack.com/JCU. Deposits into Carroll Cash by check or cash can be made in person at the Carroll Card office.

Banking

In addition to cashing checks at the Student Service Center, students also can find convenient ATM machines on campus. A Huntington Bank ATM is located in the Schott Atrium of the D.J. Lombardo Student Center and a full-service US Bank ATM is on the ground floor of the Administration Building. Fees may be assessed by the ATM host or your bank, but the University does not charge a fee for this service. There are several banks within walking distance of campus. The closest is Huntington Bank, located on Fairmount Circle. However, you will also find US Bank, Key Bank, Charter One Bank, PNC and Dollar Bank nearby.

University Dining Services

Tyson Dubay, Director of Dining Services, tddubay@jcu.edu
Emily Hans, Assistant Director of Dining Services, ehans@jcu.edu

While you are apart of the JCU family, it is our job and goal to provide you superior dining services! Our program and experienced team are designed to meet your diverse needs and provide nutritionally balanced, high quality, and skillfully prepared meals that are convenient, flexible, and satisfying.
In addition to the Fresh Food Company in Schott Dining Hall, we offer you the options of the Inn-Between located right outside of Schott Dining Hall in the D.J. Lombardo Student Center and Einstein Bagel Brothers located in the Administration Building. Both of these dining destinations provide you with alternatives to the Fresh Food Company and are especially convenient when you are in a hurry. If you are in the mood for some gourmet coffee, we also offer Java City Grasselli, located in the Library or our student-run, Fair Trade coffee shop, The Cubby, also located in the D.J. Lombardo Student Center.

All students living on campus will choose a meal plan, which you select as part of your housing contract. This year, JCU Dining is offering more “Block” meal plans as opposed to the traditional “Meals Per Week” because we understand students lives are hectic and shouldn’t be constrained to have to use a certain number of meals per week. Every meal plan has an increased amount of Plus Points for you to use at the Java City location, Einstein Bros. Bagels, The Cubby or the Inn-Between.

For those living off-campus, we invite you to participate in the dining program as well. You are welcome to choose one of our residential plans or one of the commuter plans that are specifically designed with you in mind!

One of the main initiatives at John Carroll University and JCU Dining Services is to be good stewards of the world on which we live. We serve ONLY Fair Trade coffees on campus and are increasing the number of Fair Trade certified items we sell. We are trayless in the Fresh Food Company to reduce food waste and have begun composting on campus as well. We are constantly looking for other ways in which we can reduce our carbon footprint and look to students to help us grow our “green” efforts!
